To whom it may concern,

Annette Bungers recently translated for me at a workshop in Heidelberg. Despite the fact that Annette had never met me before and was not completely familiar with the workshop topic, she proved herself to be an excellent translator. She was complemented by the students on her relaxed and unobtrusive presence and the tone and clarity of her voice.

Her relaxed yet focussed presence was an asset to the learner's experience as a whole and Annette's translation featured highly on the positive feedback that the course received - which was documented on the Evaluation Forms.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Annette for a translation role, and I look forward to working with her in the future, if you would like more information please contact me at the address below,

Yours Sincerely
